PROFILE

I currently 2nd year (2024) Bachelor of Technology student majoring in Computer Science and Engineering. I have a strong interest in Web Development.

Having knowledge of various programming languages and experience fields of self build projects.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Inrernship At Oasis -

2024

During my 1-month remote internship at Oasis, I focused on web development, gaining hands-on experience in creating real-world applications. Throughout the internship, I built various projects, including a portfolio website, a landing page, and a temperature converter, which helped me apply my skills in a practical setting. I also acquired new abilities and deepened my understanding of web development concepts, making it a highly valuable and enriching experience.

EXTRA CURICULAM

Member of college coding club -

Being involved in college clubs has allowed me to explore my interests while connecting with like-minded peers. I've participated in organizing events, attending workshops, and collaborating on projects, which has helped me develop essential skills such as leadership, teamwork, and communication. These clubs have provided me with a platform to grow both personally and professionally, all while pursuing my passions outside of the classroom.
